

Bird Smart Trail

Smart trails use quick response (QR) codes that can be scanned by a reader on a smart phone. Download a QR code reader app on your smart phone, then stop at a post with a QR code and scan it to watch a short educational video about a natural resource topic! This birding smart trail is located on the Red-tailed Hawk loop just north of the nature center parking lot – watch for the smart trail bird signs as you walk.

